- Trainee

Be part of a tight knit team and work in a fun and buzzing environment. We are looking for someone who loves food as much as we do!

As part of our well-respected team you will work with great people, get paid what you are worth and can be assured you will still have time for yourself and your family (even in Summer).

Please apply if you are available either full time or only casually - please put your availability in your email.

Finally you can have a job you love in the hospitality industry!
